Washington Correspondence.

[SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE OF RICHMOND TIMES.]

The Council of Generals—Organization of the Army, Militia, &c.—Passage of Senator Trumbull's Civil Rights bill doubtful—Tennessee delegation—The President showing his hand—Southern manufactures to be taxed, &c.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 4, 1866.

The council of generals, composed of Generals Grant, Sherman, Meade and Thomas, that has been in session here during the past week, was broken up last evening, and the result of their deliberations has been submitted to the Senate Military Committee, and will be considered by that body to-morrow morning.

The only subjects considered and discussed by this council were those immediately connected with the organization of the army; and, notwithstanding the statement to the contrary, no reference was made to the matter of reconstruction or the political status of the South, except in so far as it became necessary to allude to the subject with reference to the number of men required to do garrison duty in the Southern States.

The council specially and critically considered the militia, West Point and army bills, now before the Senate Military Committee. The militia bill was warmly approved, and the only material alteration suggested by the council was that the commander-in-chief have authority to order an inspection at such a time as he may deem proper, thus bringing the militia directly under the command of the army. The only amendment of any importance suggested in the West Point bill is, that the superintendent be selected from the army at large, instead of from the engineers' corps alone, as heretofore.

In the bill to reorganize the army, the council concur with the Senate bill as to the number of men required for the regular military peace establishment, namely 57,000. In addition to the officers named in the bill, they recommend the increase of five major-generals and ten brigadier-generals and four assistant-adjutant-generals, all to be selected from the volunteer forces, and these several officers to expire with the decease, resignation or removal of the incumbent. They recommend that the eight regiments of veteran reserves named in the organization be stricken out of the bill.

Some of the Radical members of the House announce their determination to oppose the Trumbull civil rights bill passed in the Senate on Friday last. If they do, the bill will most likely fail, as many of the Conservative Republicans and the Democrats generally expect to oppose it. But we have yet to hear from Thad. Stevens, who, if he approves the bill, will straightway proceed to stiffen the enfeebled Republican spinal column, and drive the timid Conservatives into the Radical fold, as he has done in the vote for the universal suffrage bill, and other Radical pet measures.

The resolution to admit the Tennessee Congressional delegation to their seats, with the adoption of which we were threatened last week, is now proposed to be tested the coming week, and its friends feel assured that it will pass, irrespective of the action of the Committee on Reconstruction. I think its passage is doubtful, for I find that the Jehu of the House, and his energetic rule or ruin followers, are busily at work converting or trying to convert, the stubborn Conservatives into the belief that it will entirely defeat the plan of reconstruction to be proposed by the committee, and that nothing should be done with the Tennessee delegation until the final report of the committee shall have been presented and disposed of by Congress. The Radicals are the more anxious to defeat the resolution and keep the Tennesseeans out in the cold, because to admit them would be to, in part, endorse the President's policy of reconstruction; and beside, the President has not concealed his desire and opinion that the delegation should be at once admitted. To oppose and defeat the wishes and policy of the administration, is to divorce the Republican party from Mr. Johnson, and that is exactly what Stevens & Co. desire to bring about. Their darling object will no doubt be soon accomplished, for, as matters appear to us here, a severance of that kind is inevitable.

As an evidence that the President does not intend to give office to those Radicals who openly oppose him, I may mention that the postmaster of this city, Mr. Bowen, a violent Radical, who has been one of the commissioners of the Levy Court, was supplanted yesterday by order of the President by a good and true supporter of Mr. Johnson's policy. It is said that Mr. Bowen has also had a slight hint that his place as postmaster will soon be filled by a true friend of the administration.

Sometime ago the Secretary of the Treasury issued a circular which directed that manufactured articles and certain of the products of the South, which were on hand when the rebellion ceased, should be exempt from the onerous tax indicated by the law. A new circular is now being prepared, rescinding the former, and directing that on and after the first of March next, such manufactures shall be subjected to the tax. — QUID NUNC.

The Sack of Bagdad—Demolition, Pillage and Outlawry.

The Matamoras Ranchero, of the 9th, thus fastens the responsibility of a war between Maximilian and the United States on the latter country:

The Federal commander upon being apprized of the unholy and hellish pillage of Bagdad by his own soldiers, left Brownsville for that place. Two days after the pillaging commenced, he crossed into Bagdad a force of three hundred men, with the object, we are told, of protecting the lives of the non-combatant population. But, remarkable to relate, did not restore Imperial authority, but instead, recognizes the authority of a pack of highway robbers, who received the place from his soldiers, and who went into it from the Texas side. Thus he recognizes the right of his soldiers to take and sack a town of the Mexican Empire, and after they had enjoyed two days pillage, he sends into it a force and commands the peace, but instead of putting the place in the hands of those from whom his soldiers took it, he virtually turns it over to Liberal robbers and makes himself and government responsible for the whole affair.

His soldiers attack and take a city from the hands of the Imperial Government of Mexico; his soldiers capture the Imperial garrison; assassinate Imperial citizens; shoot Imperial soldiers; sack the city, and turn all over to filibusters and so-called Liberals, who enter the place from the soil of the United States. Such, even, is the picture we are called upon to contemplate; and such is not only a declaration of war on the part of the United States, but the commencement of actual hostilities by the government.

Whether the Federal authorities have committed this awful crime wilfully, or whether they are guilty of the higher crime, inertia, stupidity, ignorance, we leave it for the public to determine. One thing, however, is certain, the course which the Federal commander has taken, fastens, irrevocably fastens, the entire responsibility of the ignoble affair upon his government.

The Ranchero of the 10th gives further particulars of the sacking of Bagdad, from which we take some extracts:

The pillage of Bagdad continues, but on a small scale in comparison to the first few days proceedings.

The negroes cross boxes of champaigne and other wines and liquors, besides packages of merchandise, without molestation from Federal officials, but when the whites attempt to carry on the same work, they are picked up by the Federal custom-house officials and made to pay duties.

All the principal homes of Bagdad have been gutted completely. Some firms in this city inform us of their receiving houses and branches have been robbed of every article worth carrying off, including their safes, which had been taken to the Texas side and blown open.

The Federal commander has been at Clarksville, and has sent a force over to this side to keep order, and was holding the place in conjunction with outlaws and filibusters. He had done nothing toward restoring the place to those from whom his soldiers took it. He left yesterday morning for Brownsville, having been and saw, and done nothing.

The Federal commander arrived up yesterday from below, and has ascertained that very few of his soldiers had a hand in the taking and sacking of Bagdad. Those few he is going to have arrested.

We do not understand that he computes the number of his soldiers who took part in that hellish affair. Lest he should arrest too many of them, we would inform him that not more than from five hundred to eight hundred took hand in the work of pillage. Only a few—very few.

We are told that goods taken at Bagdad continue to arrive in Brownsville, and are already affecting that market.

The number killed and wounded at Bagdad is so variously estimated, that without something more reliable it would not be worth while to make an estimate.

Could Not Tell.

At stout, red-faced Englishman, in white beaver, blue coat and buff vest, offered to wager a ten pound note, that he would close his eyes and, simply by taste, name any kind of liquor in the house. The bet was taken, and the process of winning or losing commenced forthwith.

"This is genuine port," said the fat gentlemen, tasting from a wine-glass. "And this—this is whiskey," and so through the hotel's "manifest." A wag then pouring a few drops of water into the glass, and handed it to the connoiseur. This is—ah—ah—this is—(tasting it)—by Jupiter! gentlemen, I lose the bet. I never tasted this liquor before."

THIS BEAUTIFUL WORLD.—Ah, this beautiful world! Indeed, I know not what to think of it. Sometimes it is all gladness and sunshine, and heaven itself lies not far off. And it changes suddenly, and is dark and sorrowful, and the clouds shut out the sky. In the lives of the saddest of us there are bright days like this, when we feel as it we could take the great world in our arms. Then come the gloomy hours, when the fire will neither burn in our hearts nor on our hearths; and all without and within is dismal, cold, and dark. Every heart has its secret sorrows, and often-times we call a man cold when he is only sad.

Dissolution of Copartnership.

THE firm heretofore known as that of Baker, Cowper & Co has this day been dissolved by mutual consent. The duties devolving on one of the partners as Cashier of the Bank of Cape Fear, and the removal of the other to Norfolk (his residence before the war) for the purpose of practicing law, have caused this dissolution. The business will be continued by Mr. Pulaski Cowper and Mr James A. Moore, late Teller of the Bank of Cape Fear, under the name and style of Cowper & Moore, who will settle up the business of Baker, Cowper & Co.

PROSPECTUS.

THE publication of the

The North Carolina Presbyterian

will be resumed in Fayetteville, on Wednesday, the 2nd of January next.

Confidently relying on the hearty support which we have heretofore received, we shall endeavor to render the paper more attractive, both in appearance and matter, than it has ever been, sparing neither pains or expense in the accomplishment of this purpose.

With the passing away of old things, a new spirit of activity, energy and enterprise, has been infused into every department of secular thought and business. Why should not the Church, also, partake of the progressive advancement? Why should she, of all the agencies brought to bear with such tremendous force upon the civilization of the present time, be inefficient, laggard and almost hopeless in the working out of her own destiny?

To arouse the church to the importance and necessity of work; of unceasing, restless, tireless energy in the service of her Master and Head; this shall be our first and chiefest aim. In this we need assistance. We are not, alone, sufficient for these things. Our brethren must help us in every way; by contributions from their own stores of thought and study; by zealous co-operation in a common cause, for the benefit of all; by extending our circulation throughout all our borders, and thus giving us the means and the opportunity of performing well the work to which we have consecrated all that we have, and all we hope for on earth.

Coe's Super-Phosphate of Lime,

BONE MANURE.

WARRANTED GENUINE.

BEING MADE OF THE BEST MATERIAL AND in the most approved manner, it is recommended to the public as superior to any other in the market. All who have used it speak of it in the highest terms of praise, and those engaged in its manufacture will continue their best endeavors to advance the high reputation which it has acquired.

We guarantee the Phosphate to be well manufactured, and recommend it in preference to any other artificial manure in the market. We consider it nearly equal to the best Peruvian Guano, although furnished at half the price.

Messrs. B. H. Allen & Co., the well known manufacturers of agricultural implements, say of it:

"We take pleasure in stating that we have sold E. F. Coe's Super-Phosphate of Lime for four years—It has given universal satisfaction to our customers. We most cheerfully endorse it as an article worthy of the confidence of the public, and the purchaser may rely upon securing an article honestly and carefully manufactured.

"We would state that, after careful examination, we believe this Phosphate has been improved each year since its introduction in this market, and that it will continue to maintain its present high standing. "Very respectfully,

"R. H. ALLEN & CO.,

HAMPSHIRE COAL.

CARGO OF 375 TONS HAMPSHIRE COAL DAily expected from Baltimore.

This coal is bituminous, and perhaps the best coal known for steam purposes, whether for locomotives or steamboats. It is used almost exclusively by Northern railroad companies and the Cunard Steamers. It is also represented as the best blacksmith's coal in the country, and is very extensively used in iron works for forging, etc. It is soft and friable, the fine coal being as good for use as the lump.

The attention of railroad companies, iron works and machine shops, is particularly invited to the importance of a trial of this coal.

The undersigned having been appointed agent for the Hampshire and Baltimore Coal Company, will be prepared to furnish any quantity required, at a reasonable price.

Orders respectfully solicited.

COPARTNERSHIP.

NEWBERN, N. C., November 1st, 1865.

WE HAVE THIS DAY FORMED A COPARTnership under the name and style of

Whitford, Dill & Co.,

for the transaction of a Shipping and General

Commission Business, in this Town, West side Craven Street, on old County Wharf.

To the sale of Cotton, Naval Stores, Tobacco, Lumber, Staves, Shingles, Corn, and all kinds of Produce and Merchandise, and also to the sale and purchase of Real Estate and State and other Stocks, we will give our personal attention.

We are Agents for Murry's North Carolina Semi-Weekly Line of Steamships, between Newbern and New York, and for Sailing Vessels for Baltimore, Philadelphia, and other ports in the United States, and for different ports in the West Indies. Thus it will be seen that we are furnished by our own vessels with the amplest facilities for the speedy transportation of Freight and Passengers. But in addition to these, there is a weekly line of Ocean Steamships on the same route, and a tri-weekly line of Steamers by inland route through Albemarle and Chesapeake Canal to Norfolk, Baltimore, Philadelphia and New York; hence Merchants and Shippers entrusting the transportation of their freight to us, can rely with confidence on its speedy transit.

OF THE

COSMOPOLITE.

ON THE FIRST OF JANUARY WE WILL commence the publication, in the City of Baltimore, of a monthly Literary Magazine.

There is no publication of this character now issued South of New York City, and the closing of the war has left a large portion of the people of the country with no literary representative.

The COSMOPOLITE will be devoted to Literature, Art, Reviews, Scientific Papers and General Reading, and we shall number among its contributors some of the first literary men of the South, with others from the North and from London and Paris.

All matter not original will be carefully selected from the newest and best of the English, French and German publications; and its Editors will spare no effort or expense to make it rank with the VERY FIRST magazines of the country.

As its name imports, we have established the COSMOPOLITE upon no sectional basis. We hope to make it the organ of general literature alone; and will be uninfluenced by any party or clique whatever.

It will be mailed to subscribers in any part of the country upon receipt of the following

Subscription:

Single Copies, for one year,	$4 00
Five Copies for one year,	18 00
Ten copies for one year,	33 00

☞ The COSMOPOLITE will be generally distributed among the Merchants and Planters of the South, and we will add, for their information, a few advertisements, at moderate rates

☞ Liberal deductions will be made to booksellers and newsdealers.

☞ Newspapers publishing this prospectus and sending a marked copy to the undersigned, will receive a copy of the magazine. Address

THE DAILY SENTINEL

WM. E. PELL,
SEATON GALES, } Editors.

Thursday, February 8, 1866.

OUR TERMS.

THE SENTINEL is issued every morning (Sundays excepted) at the following rates:

For Daily, per year,	$10 00
" six months,	5 00
" one month	1 00
" two months	2 00
Semi-Weekly per year,	5 00
Weekly per year,	3 00

Our terms are invariably in advance. The Weekly and Semi-weekly will be issued about the first of January. Money may be sent us by the Rail Road conductors or the Express Companies.

Attorney General.

Gov. Worth, for very cogent reasons, urged in his late message, the necessity of disconnecting the Attorney Generalship from the duties of solicitor of a circuit. We are not aware that a similar combination of the two offices exists in any other State. It was a plan introduced in the earlier ages of the State, when our legislators took care of the dimes and heaped burdens upon men that they could scarcely bear.

The office has grown to be one of more importance and more business, and the difficult legal questions which are likely to arise in the future history of the State, really renders it necessary that the Executive officers of the State government should have a legal adviser, whose duty it is by law to give his opinions. It is important also, that he should be confined to the duties growing out of the office of Attorney General alone, and that he should be furnished the necessary facilities and the pay, to devote himself to them. The present worthy incumbent and his successors, cheerfully give an opinion when called upon by the Governor, but when engaged in the duties of his Circuit, the duty cannot be so well or so promptly performed.—It does seem to us that the necessity for the office and the respectability of the State demand it, and we hope the Legislature will favorably consider the suggestions of the Governor on the subject.

Our Colleges.

We insert the article of "Alpha" because we know he designs no evil but good, yet our readers who have read either the article of "Roanoke" or the remarks of the Sentinel, in reference to the University, can but regard the intimations of "Alpha" as hypercritical.

The columns of the Sentinel have shown a proper interest, perhaps not as frequently as was desirable, in the promotion of education. Whenever an opportunity has served, we have invariably said a word of encouragement for all our Colleges and schools, both male and female.

The University, however, is a State institution, built and sustained from its origin by State munificence. Its condition at present is supposed by those immediately concerned with its welfare, to need specially the aid of the State, and hence, we have cheerfully contributed our mite towards that object. Now we are decidedly in favor of sustaining the University at all times, and in this crisis, but we are by no means indifferent or unfriendly to the interests of the other colleges and schools in the State.—If the State had means at her command, we should be in favor of sustaining the University handsomely, and we would urge handsome appropriations to all the other schools and colleges that need them. These are our feelings, and we have certainly said or thought nothing to the contrary. Other matters alluded to in the article, we are indisposed to notice.

Mr. Vassall, the agent of the post office department, told us that in passing a post office on the Wilmington and Weldon road, recently, and finding there was no postmaster there, he enquired of a youth if he could not take it. The youth thought he could. Mr. Vassall handed him a copy of the oath, and asked him to read it. The youth read the oath and expressed the opinion he could take it, whereupon a "substantial" citizen, of mature years, came up, cursing and damning the Yankees, the government, the oath, and other things generally and promiscuously, but more especially was he wrathful against persons who could take the oath. And this is the general feeling; let it be announced that a man or a woman expresses a willingness to take the oath prescribed for federal officeholders, and at once he or she becomes the object of sneers, ridicule and abuse. How then can it be expected we should be able to get postmasters?—Progress.

The above statement of Mr. Vassall is doubtless correct, but we except to the remark "and this is the general feeling." This is the radical error, into which all those who have thought it necessary to get down upon their knees and profess great abhorrence of the past and of the chief actors, have fallen. They have taken the blatant, outspoken and fiery manifestations of the few, for the feelings of the many. Again, all such have erred in making their own course and feelings the test of the feelings of others. They have been bitter and proscriptive themselves; but if the other side exhibit it at all, then there is a hue and cry raised. Now the true position of the true conservative men of this State, has been this: Let us forget the past—let us meet as equals—as we are all companions in suffering, let us be so in our efforts at restoration and recuperation. The only exception that we know of to this feeling, has been in regard to those persons, who, during the war, acted in such a manner as to forfeit the general confidence in their truthfulness and fidelity.

We repeat, where any of our people during the war, though they strongly sympathised with the Union, yet bore themselves in such a manner as not to forfeit the confidence of their neighbors as to their sincerity and personal fidelity, if any such can take the oath, they do not lose caste, nor are they objects of dislike or suspicion to our people. That there may be individual exceptions to this general remark, we admit.

State Agent.

The bill creating a State Agent at Washington City, fixing a high salary and equipments to the office, was very properly killed in the House on yesterday. Gov. Worth had intimated no desire for such an officer, indeed could not see the necessity for one. Why any one should desire to create a mere sinecure at Washington city when the State and people are so wofully poverty stricken, is unaccountable. If a State Agent could effect anything towards reconstruction, or if the government at Washington were a foreign power with whom the State must carry on diplomacy, perhaps such an office might be needed, but while we have President Johnson at the helm and a civil Governor who can communicate directly with the President, we can see no use for one.

The Cholera.

The Goldsboro' News very seriously urges upon the authorities of that place, the necessity of early attention to the sanitary condition of that town as a protection against and preventive of cholera.

The most serious apprehensions are felt by those who have considered the subject, that the present year will witness the ravages of that dreadful scourge of nations in this country.—Already cases have occurred at various points, indicative of the approach of the disease. It is therefore important that the most effective preventives should be resorted to, to ward off as far as possible the impending blow.

It is therefore not out of place in all the towns, that the best possible sanitary and police regulations be adopted promptly.

The University.

The resolution appropriating $7,000 per annum for the relief of the University, passed the House on yesterday. The Trustees only ask for its appropriation for four successive years.

ELECTION.—In the recent election to fill the vacancy occasioned by the resignation of Mr. Sharpe, in Iredell, Dr. Campbell, received 410 and Mr. Stevenson, his competitor 408 votes.

Freedmen's Code.

At the request of the gentlemen to whom it was addressed, we cheerfully give place to the following letter of Gov. Graham, written in reply to a letter addressed to him by Messrs. Holterby and Burton.

HILLSBORO,' Feb. 6th, 1866.

GENTLEMEN:—Yours dated the 1st inst., was handed to me yesterday.

In reply to your request, for my opinion on the question pending before the Legislature, whether negroes shall be allowed to testify before Courts of justice, in all cases, civil or criminal, where the rights of colored persons are involved, as proposed by the commission for the revision and amendment of our code as applicable to the black race, I have to remark, that recognizing in letter and spirit, the full force of the amendment of the constitution abolishing slavery in the State, I feel bound to consider every thing pertaining to this great change in the organism of our society, with the same degree of candor and impartiality, that we apply to other provisions of the constitution.

Acting upon this principle, were I clothed with the authority now vested in a member of the General Assembly, I should concur in the modification of the law in this particular, as proposed by the commission, and mainly for the reasons assigned in their report. Free negroes have always been regarded as freemen in North Carolina, and as such, entitled to the privilege of habeas corpus, trial by jury, ownership of property, even in slaves, (and cases were not infrequent of the enjoyment of this right) to prosecute and defend suits in courts of justice, and as incident to this, to make affidavits for a continuance, or as a foundation for rules in the progress of a cause, and to prove by their own oath, even against white men, accounts to the amount of sixty dollars for work and labor done or goods sold and delivered under the Book Debt Law.

The change proposed then is not so violent or extensive as many suppose: nor is it more fraught with mischief as a dangerous innovation, than in the estimation of the old professors of the Common Law, were the modern reforms in the Law of Evidence in England, among which is the regulation, that parties plaintiff and defendant, are permitted to testify in their own causes, which is said to work well. The tendency of Judicial decisions in modern times independently of the public opinion embodied in acts of the Legislature, has been in favor of the admissibility of witnesses, leaving their credit to be passed upon by the tribunal before which they depose.

There is great force in the argument, that this privilege to the extent proposed to be conferred, is in the present condition of the black race necessary to their safety, since they have lost the security of a white witness in the person of a master or overseer, or the families of either. I would grant it however, on the higher ground of right. I can at this moment call to mind no essential attribute of civil or religious liberty, which is denied to them in this State, except this privilege of bearing evidence in matters involving the rights of white men. This conceded, they have every thing necessary to the fullest enjoyment of their rights under the law. As to political liberty or power over the law, as comprehended in the right of suffrage, the safety and welfare of the community require, that this shall be jealously reserved to the white race, upon whose salutary control in the future as in the past, we must rely, for that national and conservative freedom, which under a beneficient Providence is to fulfil the high destiny of the Anglo-American States.

I remain
With high respect
Your ob't serv't
W. A. GRAHAM.

Messrs.
J. HOLDERBY,
J. W. BURTON,
House of Commons.

The Fenians in Canada.

TORONTO, Feb. 2.—The Canadian Fenians have issued an address to the American brotherhood endorsing the O'Mahony faction, declaring the true and only object of the movement to be the freedom of Ireland, and denouncing the proposition to go to Ireland by way of Canada.

NEW YORK, Feb. 4.—The Herald's Toronto special states that the Fenian excitement along the frontier is still spreading. The Mayor of Hamilton was dissuaded from arresting Sweeney and President Roberts, as they passed through on the Great Western line, for fear it should cause the destruction of the city.

Generals Heth, Pillow, Hood, and Longstreet have recently engaged in Cincinnati 1,600 white labourers, and purchased 800 cotton ploughs.

GENERAL ASSEMBLY.

SENATE.

WEDNESDAY, Feb. 7.

The Senate was called to order at 11 o'clock, A. M.

Prayer by the Rev. Mr. Bird, of Iowa.

The Journal of yesterday was read and approved.

Mr. Latham, from the commmittee on Corporations, to whom was referred the bill to incorporate the Carolina Joint Stock Insurance and Trust Company, reported back the same, recommending that it do pass.

Mr. Morehead, from the committee on the Judiciary, to whom was referred the bill regulating the terms of the Supreme Court, reported back the same, recommending its passage.

Mr. Carter, Senator elect to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Mr. Warren, of Beaufort, came forward, was qualified, and took his seat.

Mr. Howard, from the Judiciary Committee, to whom was referred the bill to repeal the 12th sec. of the 10th chap. of the acts of the General Assembly, passed at its second extra session in the year 1861, recommending its passage.

By the same, the bill to prevent carrying pistols without license, recommending that it be rejected.

Also the bill declaring valid certain elections, with a recommendation that it do not pass.

Mr. Morehead offered a resolution, proposing to send a message to the House, recommending that a joint select committee on the part of both Houses be raised to enquire into the expediency of having all or a portion of the State printing transferred to the job office of the Institution of the Deaf, Dumb and the Blind, which was adopted.

Mr. McKoy, introduced a resolution, instructing the Judiciary Committee to enquire into the expediency of so amending the law as to require that the grand jurors shall be drawn, empannelled, and charged at one term to serve at the next term of our courts; and that said grand jurors shall be bound to take notice of all offences committed which may come to their knowledge. Adopted.

A message from the House proposing to go forthwith into the election of one councillor of the State to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Mr. W. W. Lenoir. Not agreed to.

Mr. Howard introduced a resolution proposing that a joint committee be raised, two on the part of the Senate and three on the part of the House, to take into consideration the propriety of renewing the books belonging to the late Adjutant General's office, and commissary department of N. C. from the office of Secretary of State, to the room in the Capitol lately occupied by the State Geologist. Adopted.

A message was received from the House transmitting the following engrossed bills, viz:

A bill to charter High Shoal Railroad Company.

A resolution defining the duty of the Governor with regard to the distribution of the act "for the more complete organization of the State Government."

A bill to restore jury trials, in criminal cases, to the Courts of Pleas and Quarter Sessions of the State, all of which were read first time.

Mr. Snead offered 21 additional names for magistrates of Johnston county. Concurred in.

Mr. Whitford introduced a bill to amend an act for the relief of Landlords, and on his motion was referred to the Committee on the Judiciary.

The unfinished business of yesterday was taken up, the bill providing for the payment of interest on State Bonds now due, being under consideration, was discussed until the hour for the special order arrived.

The bill to prohibit, for a limited time, the distillation of spiritious liquors from grain, was taken up, being the special order for 12 o'clock, and a lengthy discussion insued. Its length and the number engaged in it, prevents a report. Pending the discussion.

A message from the House proposing to go forthwith into the election of one trustee for the University of North Carolina, which was concurred in, and the Senate voted by ballot as follows: Bynum, 33; Hyman, 9; Hoke 1.

On motion of Mr. Howard, the vote by which the bill in reference to bonds on marriage licenses was rejected, was reconsidered.

Mr. Wiggins introduced a resolution instructing the Senate to meet, unless otherwise ordered, hereafter at 10 o'clock, which was laid over for one day under the rules.

Mr. Howard moved to adjourn until to-morrow at 10 o'clock; Mr. Whitford moved to amend it by inserting 11, which was agreed to.

The Senate adjourned until to-morrow at 11 o'clock.

[In our notice of the debate on yesterday upon the bill introduced by Mr. Berry, for the payment of the interest on the State bonds, we incorrectly made the impression that Mr. Wilson was opposed to the bill. We should have stated that Mr. Wilson was opposed to an amendment proposed and not to the bill. Mr. Howard was opposed to the bill and Mr. Morehead supported it warmly.]—Reporter.

HOUSE OF COMMONS.

WEDNESDAY, Feb. 7, 1866.

The House was called to order at 10 o'clock A. M.

The Journal of yesterday was read and approved.

Mr. Campbell, Commoner elect from Iredell county, to fill the vacancy created by the resignation of L. Q. Sharpe, Esq., appeared and was qualified.

Mr. Hutchison introduced a bill to authorize the construction of a toll-bridge across the Catawba River, at, or near the Rock Island Factory, between the counties of Mecklenburg and Gaston.

Mr. Cowan, a bill to incorporate the Bladen Land Company.

Mr. Murril, a bill to incorporate Richlands Female Academy in the county of Onslow.—[This bill passed its several readings under a suspension of the rules.]

Mr. Caldwell, a bill to legalize the transfer of registered bonds of this State to bearer.

Mr. Gaines from the committee that superintended the election, on yesterday, for two Trustees of the University, reported the election of Wm. A. Jenkins, Esq.

On motion of Mr. Waugh, a message was sent to the Senate proposing to go forthwith into an election for a Councillor of State, to fill the vacancy created by the resignation of W. W. Lenoir, Esq.

The following nominations were made: By Mr. Waugh, Jno. M. Cloud; by Mr. Houston, James T. Morehead, Jr.; by Mr. McIntosh, Robert F. Simonton; by Mr. Scoggins, Hon. G. W. Logan; by Mr. Moore, of Alamance, Giles Mebane; by Mr. McNair, N. A. McLean; by Mr. Nicks, Tyre Glenn; by Mr. Jenkins, of Warren, Joseph Davis; by Mr. McDonald, Charles M. Steadman; by Mr. Marler, J. C. McDowell.

Mr. Ferrell, nominated Hon. Robt. P. Dick. Mr. Houston, hoped that Mr. Dick name would be withdrawn; Mr. Dick had been one of Gov. Holden's Council and he did not think, he would harmonize very well with Gov. Worth's Council.

Mr. McAden, by leave, introduced "a bill to amend the Charter of the town of Graham."

SPECIAL ORDER.

At eleven o'clock the House proceeded to consider the "bill to create a State Agent," on its 2nd. reading.

Mr. Russell said that he stood alone on the committee on Federal Relations in opposition to the bill, and wished briefly to state the reasons of this opposition. The bill proposes to create an agency at Washington City to aid in the collection of claims against the government, and to take supervision not only of the interests of the State at large, but also of those of individuals. The duties of the position would crush any man. The office would seem to be intended as a substitute for Senators and Representatives. It would be as well perhaps for Sumner, or Thad. Stevens to propose a Constitutional amendment superseding Congress altogether, as it would be much cheaper to transact the public business though such agents. Adverting to the right of the proposed agent to employ counsel, Mr. R. suggested that the direct employment of counsel when needed would be cheaper and better, as North Carolina would have but few claims to prosecute for years to come, and her people should not be taxed to further the collection of individual claims.—State Agents at Washington, were needed by Northern and Western States, to collect bounties, pension and other claims of soldiers—their widows and orphans. How many soldiers, he asked, from North Carolina would get pensions from the Federal Government? We had done well enough since the termination of the Provisional Government without an agent. There had been during the Provisional Government such an agency at Washington, which had doubtless done much for the relief of our people, but he deemed there was no necessity for its continuance, or else the Governor would have recommended it.

Mr. Cameron said that the majority of the Committee thought the creation of this office would be materially beneficial to the State.—He had an interview with the Assistant Post Master General, and others conversant with such matters, who confirmed the opinion of the committee as to the advisability of having an agent at Washington—acquainted with the President, and heads of departments and their modes of transacting business. The Salary proposed ($4,000,) was certainly moderate. We could not expect our agent to live in a rat-hole and present a seedy appearance.

Mr. Russell moved an indefinite postponement of the bill.

Mr. Waugh opposed the bill, and called attention to the fact that a resolution had passed the House of Representatives declaring that no claims from Southern States shall be considered for the present. It was no time to create new offices, or to tax the people further than absolutely necessary. His section of the State was so impoverished that the dogs like "Josh Billings" were seeking new homes. He was unwilling to tax the people to pay an agent to obtain pardons for the poor unfortunate persons who were so very criminal as to possess more than $20,000.

Mr. Henry of Bertie, urged the passage of the bill, and objected to the levity with which it had been treated. He hoped it would be discussed solely upon its merits. As an offset to what the gentleman from Surry had said of the action of the House of Representatives, postponing indefinitely the consideration of Southern claims, Mr. Henry stated that the Judiciary Committee had reported, recently in the United States Senate, in favor of receiving and adjudicating such claims. Was North Carolina to stand back alone in her poverty-stricken pride, while other States had their claims adjusted? The creation of this agency would not add materially to the burthen of taxation, and he for one would be willing himself to pay his county's quota of such taxation, rather than such agency should not be established.

Mr. Waugh again addressed the House opposing the measure as wholly unnecessary—adverted to the refusal of Congress to modify the Test Oath, so as to give our people ordinary mail facilities, and asked if it was not notorious that the only test of loyalty was sneezing simultaneously with Stanton and Sumner and Wilson. He was not unwilling to the creation of an agency to be sustained by voluntary contributions—as suggested by the gentleman from Bertie. As we are regarded by the Radicals as aliens and foreigners, we had better have a Minister Plenipotentiary. (Laughter.) If this agency is to be created, he should be in favor of providing that the salary shall be paid in State Treasury notes of a denomination less than one dollar heretofore issued. (Renewed Laughter.)

Mr. Cameron said, the gentleman from Surry had set himself up as the wit of the House, and he had no idea of competing for that honor. That gentleman had said, that his people were so poor that the dogs were leaving home, it was passing strange then, that he should oppose a little outlay, that would enable them to keep their dogs at home and fatten them. The gentleman said that few of his people needed pardon under the $20,000 exemption. It would seem that the wealthy only had the gentleman's sympathies. For his part he cared more for the poor of the land. The resolution postponing the consideration of claims from the South, had passed but one branch of Congress. As to the Test Oath, he inferred from what had been said, that there were persons in the gentleman's section who could take it, and he had good reason to believe that a State agent could do much towards procuring the re-establishment of mail facilities. There were numerous individual claims which could be presented by no one so well as an accredited State agent, conversant with the Departments and their modes of business. He had not thought of it before, but he had perhaps a claim of his own. Sherman's army had taken every thing he had. They didn't leave him meat enough to grease a gimlet, or meal enough to bait a bird-trap. (Laughter.) He would have been too poor to have fed his dogs, if they hadn't killed them. They left him no clothes but those on his back, and they were out at the elbows right smart. He had been a consistent opponent of secession from the very first, and this had been the usage he had received. An intelligent agent at Washington could materially aid our people in prosecuting claims to a successful issue.

The question recurring, the bill was indefinitely postponed as follows:

YEAS—Messrs. Arrington, Ashworth, Baxter, Black, Blythe, Bonner, Bryson, Burgess, Caldwell, Campbell, Candler, Chadwick, Coates, Cowan, Cox, Crawford, Dalby, Dargan, Dickey, Everett, Faircloth of Green, Faircloth of Wayne, Farrow, Ferrell, Foster, Furr, Gaines, Hamilton, Harper, Harrison, Hawes, Hodnett, Horton, Houston, Jenkins of Gaston, Jones, Judkins, Kinney, Lee of Gates, Leigh of Tyrrell, Luke, Marler, McAden, McGuire, McNair, Moore of Alamance, Moore of Chatham, Moore of Martin, Murrill, Niven, Nicks, Palmer, Paschall, Rosebro, Russell, Smith of Columbus, Smith of Cumberland, Smith of Guilford, Smith of Hertford, Scoggin, Teague, Trull, Waugh, Wheeler, Williams, Wilson, and York—67.

NAYS—Messrs. Allison, Beasley, Blair, Burton, Cameron, Carson, Craige, Davis of Carteret, Dunn, Flythe, Garland, Gidney, Henry, Holderby, Hoke, Hutchison, Hyman, Jenkins of Warren, Joyner, Kenan, Logan, Manly, Matthews, McDonald, McEachin, McIntosh, McKay, Melson, Murphy, Newsum, Shaw, Thigpen, Thompson, and Webb—34.

A message was received from the Senate proposing to raise a joint select committee to take into consideration the expediency of having the State printing and binding done at the Institution for the Deaf, and Dumb and Blind. Concurred in.

A bill to authorize the banks of the State to subscribe for stock in the National banks was made the special order for 11 o'clock on Tuesday next.

A bill to allow persons of Indian blood to bear testimony in controversies at law and in equity, was made the special order for Wednesday next at 12 o'clock M.

A bill further suspending the operation of the statute of limitation passed its second reading.

A bill to incorporate the English and American Wool and Vine-growing, Mining and Manufacturing company. Passed its third reading.

A bill to incorporate the Trustees of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian church of the United States of America, was put on its third reading.

On motion of Mr. Hutchison, the bill was amended by striking out the words of America. The bill thus amended passed.

A resolution in favor of A. W. Fraps. Passed its several readings.

Mr. Marler, (by leave,) introduced a bill in favor of J. B. Spainhour, tax collector of Burke county.

Mr. Smith, of Hertford, reported a resolution for the relief of the University. (Appropriates $7,000 to that institution.)

Messrs. Smith, of Hertford, Cameron, Manly and McKay urged the adoption of the resolution under a motion of the first named to suspend the rules.

Mr. Hodnett opposed a suspension of the rules, and thought the consideration of the resolution should be postponed for the present.

Mr. Everett opposed the resolution. He did not see that the University had greater claims than individuals who had sustained losses by the war. It would beggar the State to extend relief in all cases.

Mr Waugh moved to amend the resolution by appropriating the further sum of $50,000 for the Common Schools of the State.

Mr. Crawford moved to amend the amendment by making the appropriation for Common Schools $200,000. The amendment to the amendment was rejected. The amendment was rejected.

The resolution then passed its second reading as follows, the yeas and nays having been ordered on motion of Mr. York:

YEAS.—Messrs. Allison, Baxter, Beasley, Black, Bonner, Burgess, Burton, Caldwell, Cameron, Candler, Chadwick, Cowan, Cox, Dargan, Dunn, Faircloth, of Green, Faircloth of Wayne, Faison, Flythe, Foster, Gaines, Harper, Hawes, Henry, Holderby, Hoke, Houston, Hutchison, Hyman, Jenkins, of Warren, Joyner, Judkins, Kenan, Kinney, Lee, of Gates, Leigh of Tyrrell, Luke, Manly, Marler, McAden, McDonald, McGuire, McIntosh, McKay, McNair, Melson, Moore, of Martin, Murphy, Murrill, Niven, Newsum, Rayner, Russell, Shaw, Smith, of Columbus, Smith, of Cumberland, Smith, of Hertford, Thigpen, Thompson, Webb, Williams, Wilson—62.

NAYS.—Messrs. Arrington, Ashworth, Blair, Blythe, Bryson, Campbell, Carson, Coates, Craige, Crawford, Dalby, Davis, of Carteret, Dickey, Everett, Furr, Gidney, Hamilton, Harrison, Hodnett, Horton, Jenkins, of Gaston, Jones, Matthews, McEachen, Moore, of Chatham, Nicks Palmer, Paschall, Rosebro, Scoggin, Teague, Trull, Waugh, York.—34.

The resolutions then passed their third reading. Leave of absence was granted Messrs Simmons and Flythe.

The Senate by message refused to concur in the proposition to elect a Councillor of State.

On motion of Mr. Wilson, a message was sent to the Senate proposing to elect forthwith a Trustee of the University. The Senate by message announced its concurrence, and the House having voted adjourned until 10 o'clock A. M., to-morrow.

For the Sentinel.

The University.

The zeal of "Roanoke," the Sentinel and others is objectionable, only so far as it is partial and unjust in its application. The University is valuable and ought to be sustained. All carping at its men is unjust and illiberal. But there is neither more reason nor necessity for it to be sustained, than there is for Trinity, Wake Forest and Davidson. The University is good, so are they the University is honorable to the State, so are they. The faculties of these colleges are somewhat smaller than that of the University, but man for man, they are as learned, as talented, as polished and as apt to teach. The libraries and apparatus of Trinity are very nearly as good as those of the University. A comparison of catalogues will show that these colleges together have more students than the University. Then a majority of our people who send to college do not send to the University. Then, why should the State in her public official capacity favor the University more than other colleges? A State college and a State church are practically very similar. The experience of the whole United States has shown, without exception, that some one denomination, practically rules and is chiefly benefitted by every such institution. Then to compell all the people to support such by their money, is similar in justice and expediency to compelling a Baptist to pay tithes to an established church of another denomination. The University of North Carolina is simply a good college, nothing more; if it was a University, the case would be somewhat different. Let those who want the University have it by all means, but let them pay for it as others do, who want something different. We say help all. If the State can do so, let something be done for all, they all need it. They are all valuable to the State. Whoever opposes any one of them, does a foolish thing. Roanoke has a diploma signed by the faculty at the University, so has this writer, and he prizes it very highly, but he imagines that one signed by any of the other faculties would be very good and very much respected by all sensible people. The University may be more important than any other one college, but there is no reason why the rest should be ignored. We say help all or none. It is time for exclusive and partial legislation to come to an end. If the University cannot live upon her own merits, how can Trinity do so? Come now, let us have fair play. Those who prefer Trinity or Wake Forest are as valuable citizens as those who prefer the University. Any attempt to specially favor the University, will most likely meet a very stern rebuke from the people.

ALPHA.

THE NATIONAL EXPRESS COMPANY.—We understand that General J. L. Kemper succeeds General Imboden as General Superintendent of the National Express and Transportation Company, the latter taking the position of Company's Counsel.

SNOW.—It commenced snowing yesterday afternoon about 4½ o'clock, and in a short time it began to come down so fast that the ground was soon covered with white—wrapt, as it were, in a complete "winding sheet." We feared that this would be the case, judging by the state of the weather on Sunday, but thinking that it would come sooner, we had almost ceased to harbor the thought of its snowing.—*Wil. NOTICE.

I SHALL offer for sale, at public auction, on Tuesday, 20th of February next, the farm on which I now reside, situated partly in Nash, and partly in Edgecombe Counties, N. C. This farm contains nine hundred and seventy-five acres, of which one-third is in a high state of cultivation and well adapted to the growth of cotton, corn and oats. The other portion is well timbered and peculiarly valuable on account of the growing demand for lumber in the vicinity.

I will sell, at the same time, my stock of all kinds, including Horses, Mules, Cows and Calves, Sheep, Sows and Pigs, and all of good breeds.

-ALSO-

five hundred barrels of Corn, a large quantity of Fodder and Shucks, farming Utensils of all kinds, Wagons and Carts, a fine collection of Carpenters' Tools, and about twenty thousand pounds of Pork already killed and salted.

All this property will be sold under the hammer of Mr. J. J. Alston, well known as an accomplished auctioneer.

This property is peculiarly valuable, from the fact that it is within easy access of the Wilmington and Weldon Rail Road, being only three miles from one station and six from another. Location remarkably healthy.

Terms made known on day of sale.

CITY AND STATE ITEMS.

SNOW.—The snow which fell in Wilmington a day or two ago, missed this city. The weather has been trying to effect that object for several days, but has failed up to this writing.

THE POOR.—There are numbers in and around the city whose needy condition require attention. We are glad that some attention is being given to the matter.

NEW MEMBERS.—We are pleased to observe that D. M. Carter, Esq., the Senator from Beaufort in the place of Judge Warren, was in his seat on yesterday.

Also that R. T. Campbell, Esq., the newly elected Commoner from Iredell in place of Mr. Sharpe, was also in his seat.

Mr. Dugger's excellent school for boys is still in successful operation in Warrenton. See advertisement.

GEN. LANE'S SCHOOL.—It will be seen that this fine scholar and popular soldier has established a school for boys at Concord as a means of support. His numerous friends in the State will be glad to hear it, and will, no doubt, patronize him as far as possible.

GENERAL NEWS.

A firm in New Orleans received lately an order for one thousand ploughs from a single county in Texas. Agriculture is said to be "looking up" in the Lone Star State.

It is not generally known that the year 1865 was favored with fifty-three Sundays, the first and last day being a Sabbath. It will be quite a number of years before the same circumstance recurs.

At the Colored Suffrage Convention, in session at Washington, one of the members objected to the presence of white men, whereupon Dr. Henry Highland Garnett remarked that this was not the time to make distinctions on account of color.

The Legislature of Georgia elected A. H. Stephens to the United States Senate, by a vote of 152 to 38 over Joshua Hill, a Unionist. Mr. Stephens declined—and the Legislature then chose Herschell V. Johnson, the gentleman who ran on the same ticket with Mr. Douglas, in his last campaign.

EMIGRATION FROM EUROPE.—Dispatches to the State department indicate that the emigration from Europe to the United States will exceed any previous one. All the German ports, especially, are filling up with persons desirous of securing a passage.

The Navy department positively contradicts the story about the fitting out of war vessels at New Orleans to operate on the Rio Grande.

Proceedings are to be taken against the property of Gen. Sterling Price, late C. S. A., located in Charlton county, Missouri.

Col. Mosby has been released upon parole by Gen. Grant, he being included in the terms of Gen. Lee's surrender.

PETERSBURG MARKET.—The following was the state of the market in Petersburg on the 5th:

Oaks Warehouse—Bond & Hawks.—2 hhds. common lugs sold, $5 20, 7 25. One lot loose—common, $4.

No sales at the other warehouses.

Cotton—sales at 43@44c.

Specie—Hinton & Dunn, Brokers.—Gold bought at 138; sold at 141. Silver bought at 134; sold at 138.

Wheat—Fair to prime Red $1.50@$1.55; fair to strictly prime white $1.75@$2.00.

Corn—$1.05@1.10.

Pork 14 cents.

Bacon—Hog round—Old 18 cents; new 20 cents.

The four youths hung in Nashville for murder laughed, swore, scoffed and chewed tobacco on the gallows up to the last moment.

Three hundred pretty girls dance almost nude in one of the theatres in Paris. The public is said to be "shocked," and ask where are the police.

The city of St. Louis has 21 Catholic churches 15 Lutheran, 13 Methodist, 11 Presbyterian, 6 Baptist, 6 Episcopal, 1 Christian, 1 Congregational, 2 Unitarian, and 1 Universalist.

NEW ORLEANS, Feb. 3.—A despatch from Vicksburg, of the 2d, states that the steamer W. R. Carter exploded her boilers at 3 o'clock this morning, at Island No. 98. A large number of lives were lost, and the boat and cargo are a total loss.

THE FERRY.—Major General Terry has issued an order to turn over the Ferry to Norfolk county and the City of Portsmouth, provided all persons in the military service of the United States are allowed to pass free of charge.—Nor. Virginian.

MANSION HOUSE.—W. P. Moore, proprietor of this popular Hotel, has just fitted it up in elegant and comfortable style. He is one of our most enterprising citizens, and determined not to be out-done by any of his cotemporaries.—Char. Times.

FATAL ACCIDENT.—A man, supposed from papers found on his body, to be Samuel Dodd, 138th Indiana Vol., was killed between Mount Olive and Dudley Station, Saturday night. An entire freight train passed over the body, mangling it in a horrible manner.

COMPLETION OF THE BRIDGE OVER THE PEE DEE RIVER.—We are pleased to learn that the Railroad Bridge over the Pee Dee River was to have been completed to-day, and that the W. & M. R. R. Company will be enabled to run their cars over as formerly.—Wil. Journal.

The Lynchburg News of Saturday says some eight or ten gentlemen were arrested on Tuesday, and taken to Richmond to be tried before a military commission, for cruelty to freedmen. Their names have not been made public.

RELIGIOUS.—A somewhat protracted meeting at the Methodist church in Charlotte has just closed, and it is hoped that the community has been benefited. The Pastor, the Rev. Mr. Power, was assisted by the Rev. A. W. Miller and Rev. H. B. Pratt of the Presbyterian Church, and the Rev. Mr. Aldrich of the Lutheran Church.—Exchange.

Memorial of the Trustees of the University.

To the General Assembly of the State of North Carolina:

The memorial of the Trustees of the University of North Carolina, respectfully represents:

That the situation of the Institution committed to their charge by your honorable body, imposes on them the duty of accounting to the Legislature for the administration of their trust, by an exhibition of a full and true statement of the condition and prospects of the University, and asking from the ——— authority, such interposition as may be deemed requisite to sustain and promote the prosperity and usefulness of the establishment.

From it our country has already derived the advantages of a general diffusion of liberal and scientific education and, to it, chiefly, she must look in future for a supply of able and upright members of her professions, teachers of youth and faithful and enlightened public servants. The trustees feel a deep interest in the welfare of the College, and sensible of its true value, have endeavored to execute, to the extent of their personal ability, and as far as their pecuniary means placed at their disposal would allow, the important public trust committed to them. They believe that the people of the State generally entertain a strong sense of the value of the institution to those now living, and its immense importance to future generations; and doubt not that your honorable body participates in that deep solicitude for the welfare of this Seminary of learning, established under an injunction of the constitution by your predecessors, and will upon due information and consideration, do whatever may be necessary to prevent its entertaining any loss, and especially that of existence.

The University has been in operation seventy years, and during that period has not ceased to impart to the people of the State and of the country, in the fullest measure of its ability, those beneficial influences which the Legislature contemplated in its foundation. In this time no less than seventeen hundred and twenty-one young men have received to their largest extent the advantages of a liberal education, and a number little less, if less even, have enjoyed the same advantages, so far as their time and means allowed. These have filled the learned professions with credit to themselves and honor to the country. They have been scattered over the whole South, and have occupied the highest places of dignity and service in law, in politics and in the church; and thousands in the more private walks of life have contributed to the diffusion of knowledge and good taste, and mental culture through all the grades of our community. The influence for good thus exerted on the reputation and prosperity of our country, its material no less than its social prosperity, can never be computed in dollars and cents. The results are infinitely beyond the outlay.

On one occasion only—and that just in the middle period of its existence, thirty-five years ago—has this institution called upon the State for aid. Even then its necessities were relieved without the use of the loan which the Legislature offered. From the beginning it may be said, almost literally supported itself. At the outset of its career, it was endowed with such property as might come to the State by escheat—a resource which, for a while, was very productive, but now has become both scanty and uncertain. The only sum that the University has ever received directly from the Treasury of the State, the only sum that has been raised for its benefit, by taxation of the people, is ten thousand dollars, which was loaned to it by the Legislature in December, 1791, and subsequently made an absolute gift. Will any one say that the University has not returned to the State an equivalent many times over, for this donation?

From the time of that solitary gift, until the breaking out of the recent war, its career has been one of growing prosperity, and its income from this source, united with the interest derived from estates bequeathed and given by private persons, mostly soldiers of the Revolution, was rather in excess of its current expenses. In this way a very respectable fund had been gradually accumulating. This fund, however, the war has swept utterly away, and the result is, that the University has not now the means to sustain its life. Without aid it must speedily cease to exist. In the general improvement of all classes of men among us, it cannot look to the benefactions of private persons for the relief it needs; and the only hope of its continued existence is in the wisdom and good will of your honorable body.

The investment and general management of the funds of the College have been conducted in compliance with the suggestions of the Legislature, and in a way which the most skilful financier also judged to be at the same time the most safe and the most profitable.

The exigences of the State, however, during the war called for the use of them very much in its service, and the necessity imposed upon the State, since the peace, of declining to pay the war debt, has rendered the securities received for them entirely without value. The consequence of those events is, that the University is now, and is likely some time to be, without the means to continue its operations. The Professors have received during the past year less than one-fifth of their salaries, and there is no prospect that the institution will soon be able to supply them with enough for even the scantiest living. Without help they will be forced to disband, and that in a very few months.

It may be affirmed that the small sum which the college now needs has been already earned by it. In almost every year since its foundation, a number of students have received their education at this institution without charge.—The sum thus bestowed by the college on the indigent and meritorious youth of the States would be enough, it is believed, to sustain it till better times shall come. The trustees have felt it to be their duty to make this statement of facts to the Legislature, which is, under the constitution, the guardian of the University. They will add, that a small sum only—so small that it can no where be felt as a burthen—paid annually for at the farthest four years, would, they think, save the college; and they submit to your honorable body, with entire confidence in the wisdom of your decision, what they feel to be the question of its life or death.

SENATE.—Mr. Clark reported bill providing for the punishment of kidnapping negroes.

Mr. Fessenden spoke in support of the joint resolution upon representation.

The House debated the bill setting apart all public lands in Mississippi, Louisiana, Akansas and Florida as homesteads for both white and black.

President on Suffrage.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 7.

Fred. Douglas and other negro delegates had an interview with the President to-day, for the purpose of securing all civil and political rights, particularly suffrage. The President referred to his past conduct as evidence of his friendship, but decidedly expressed himself against giving them suffrage, as likely to bring them in conflict with the whites, and produce a war of races.

Kenneth Haynes, Esq. Clerk of Columbus County Court, writes [April 2, 1853:] "During the latter part of the year 1864 I was severely afflicted with diseased liver, and many nights while in bed the pain would become so excruciating that I was compelled to get out of the bed and sit up until the pain would subside. I procured a few boxes of the Southern Hepatic Pills, and the first dose gave me great relief. I continued to use the Pills for two weeks, and have not suffered from liver disease since. I have recommended them accordingly, and several persons are in want of them."

ADDRESS THE INVENTOR,
B. FRANK. PALMER, LL.D. PRES'T. A. A. LIMB. Co.

These inventions stand approved as the "best" by the most eminent Scientific and Surgical Societies of the world the inventor having been honored with the award of FIFTY GOLD AND SILVER MEDALS (or "First Prizes") including the Great Medals of the World's Exhibition in London and New York; also the most Honorary Report of the great Society of Surgeons of Paris, giving his Patents place above the ENGLISH AND FRENCH.

Dr. Palmer gives personal attention to the business of his profession, aided by men of the best qualifications and greatest experience. He is specially commissioned by the Government and has the private name of the prominent Officers of the Army and Navy. Six Major Generals and more than a thousand less distinguished officers and soldiers have worn the PALMER LIMBS on active duty while still greater numbers of eminent civilians are by their aid, filling important positions, and effectually conceal their misfortune

Advice and Pamphlets Gratis.

To avoid the imposition of Piratical Copyists, apply only to DR. PALMER, as above directed, or to his Agent,

The Maid of Fashion.

VARIED FROM BRYON.

Maid of Fashion, ere we part,
Hear me own how fair thou art;
Hear me now the truth confess
I love thee for thy taste in dress,
Beautiful from top to toe,
*Zoe mhu sas agapo!

By those stays so tightly laced;
By that big buckle at thy waist;
By the long skirt unconfined
That draggels in the dirt behind;
By the corsuge cut so low,
Zoe mhu sas agapo!

By the buck hair thou has got
Pack'd up like a porter's knot;
By those frizz'd out, frizzy curls
Envy of less bursute girls;
By thy bonnet strings huge bow,
Zoe mou sas agappo!

By thy earings, chains and "charms,"
By the bracelets on their arms;
By thy boots with monster heels;
By thy vail that half conceals
The rouge that on thy checks doth glow,
Zoe mou sas agappo!

*Greek—My life I love thee.

A Touching Appeal.

A number of freedmen in Selma, Alabama, have published an appeal to their former masters, concluding in the following earnest, but respectful terms:

Dear Friends and former Masters:—We know that there is a large number of widows and crippled men, who are well educated, and have no employment by which to make a living.—These we would be pleased to see taking an interest in teaching our children and training them up in the way they should go. We are greatly in want of schools, and to persons who will establish them we will guarantee our undivided support. Our own people are the proper ones to teach us, and we sincerely wish them to do so. And why should they refuse? They raised and taught us all that we know, as carpenters, black-smiths, stone and brick masons, painters, etc., including working on the farm, driving, etc., and were not ashamed or backward in performing this service. And why should it be considered a disgrace to make a living at this business in the South?—We make our living out of the people here, and, therefore, we think it our duty to spend our money with those who sustained and took care of us.

The United States Government and your State Convention give us our freedom, and we prefer you to any other to have the money derived from our daily labor for teaching our children. If you all stand back, strangers will come in and take the money from under your hands and carry it way to build up their own country. They are not ashamed to make money from any class of men.

Love and Whiskey.

A wayward son of the Emerald Isle "left the bed and board" which he and Margaret, his wife, had occupied for a long while, and spent his time around rum shops, where he was always on hand to count himself "in" whenever anybody should "stand treat." Margaret was dissatisfied with the state of things, and endeavored to get he husband home. We shall see how she proceeds:

"Now, Patrick, my honey, will you come back?"

"No, Margaret, I won't come back."

"And won't you come back for the love of your children?"

"Not for the love of the children Margaret."

"Will you come back for the love of myself?"

"Niver at all. 'Way wid ye."

Margaret thought she would try another inducement. Taking a pint bottle of whisky from her pocket, and holding it up to her truant husband, she said:

"Will you come for the drop of whisky?"

"Ah, me darling," said Patrick, unable to withstand such temptation, "it's yourself that'll always bring me home agin—ye has such a winning way wid ye, I'll come, Margaret."

Margaret declared that "Patrick was reclaimed by moral suasion."

Roast Pig.

Since Lamb's eloquent essay upon this "dish for the gods," in which he descants with more than Apian enthusiasm upon the "crisp, tawney, well watched, not over-roasted, crackling," we have read no panegyric upon this subject which transcends the following. It is a delicate but highly impassioned tribute, and may be said literally to "go the whole hog," for that dainty dish:—Nor. Old Dominion.

"O, pig, or rather little pork, once pig,
Smoking so daintily upon the table,
Making each gazer long that he were able
To eat thee, every limb, both small and big;
No more in squeaking fight, or grunting jig,
Thou runn'st about the straw-yard, sty, or stable;
Nor bump't thy little side against the gable;
Nor cock'st thy snout, a judge without a wig!
All other viands which I ever saw,
Served up in silver, crock ry ware or tin,
Whether boil'd, roasted, bak'd, stew'd, fried or raw,
Compar'd wi h thee, are worthless as a pin!
Sweet, d lc tetmeat. Crackling without a flaw!
What, ho! a knife and fork! I must begin!"

A very learned and compassionate Judge in Texas, on passing sentence on John Jones, who had been convicted of murder, concluded his remarks as follows:

"The fact is, Jones, that the Court did not intend to order you to be executed before next Spring, but the weather is very cold; our jail, unfortunately, is in a very bad condition; much of the glass in the windows is broken; the chimneys are in such a dilapidated state that no fire can be made to render your apartments comfortable, besides owing to the great number of prisoners, not more than one blanket can be allowed to each; to sleep sound and comfortable, therefore, is out of the question. In consideration of these circumstances, and wishing to lessen your sufferings as much as possible, the Court, in the exercise of its humane compassion, hereby orders you to be executed tomorrow morning, as soon after breakfast as may be convenient to the Sheriff and agreeable to you."

A WARD—SHOWMAN.—The renowned Artemus Ward is announced to lecture to the Wilmingtonians, on Wednesday and Th sday evenings next. He has been edifying our friends of the far South, for some weeks past, with graphic accounts of his experience among the Mormons, and we doubt not, he will serve up to our citizens one of the richest treats they have enjoyed for many a day.—Wil. Dispatch.

LIFE INSURANCE NOTICE.

THE old and well established

Ætna Company, of Hartford,

Offers superior inducements to all who wish to provide for family or friends.

All losses are promptly paid. No case of litigation has ever occurred with this Company. With assetts of $2 3 0,000, it offers to receive one half of the premium in a note and half in cash, and, after the second year, to credit each customer with the dividends of the Company, which are now 50 per cent. With a small outlay, $5000, or $10,000, or $20,000, may be secured to the family after their earthly providers are taken away. What father or husband would not feel thankful on his dying couch, that he had availed himself of every proper means to place those nearest and dearest to him, above the p nchings of want, and a life of dependence upon friends or charity? $ 8 9 9 policies have been issued from the office ending Jan. 15 1866. The total income for the year 1865 was $1,683,339 57; total disbursements $527 8 5 24, leaving a balance to surplus fund of $1,155 2 4 33.

In Raleigh a large number have liberally responded and promptly acted in this matter; yet many delay, and may wait until it is too late. A man in this city lately left his place of business for his evening meal, well and healthy, but never reached that home except as he was carried there to die. Had that man taken the advice of the Agent, he might have left $5000 to minister to the necessities of a sorrowing family. Delays are dangerous, procrastination destructive. But one says, "If I only had confidence in the Company that it would pay, I would insure." Well, it never has failed to pay, and to-day is more responsible than ever before. It is patronized by some of the most sagacious minds in the land—men competent to detect and expose any deception if it existed.

THIS valuable Manure has been before the agricultural public, under one name for twelve years past, and its character for vigor of action and permanence in effect is well established. Before the war, it was introduced, to some extent, in the Southern States, and was found to be highly adapted to Cotton, Tobacco, and all Crops.

In its action, it is as quick as Peruvian Guano, while it does not leave the land in an exhausted state, but on the other hand permanently improves it. This has been fully proven by years of trial.

CIRCULAR.

TO THE PUBLIC:

The undersigned has now ready for the press a volume, the result of the lucubrations of many years, entitled a 'Short Treatise on Chronology in General, and especially on Classical Chronology." The work is not intended to be a chronological chart, nor yet a collection of dates and synchronistic tables. The author's aim has been to prepare a "Horn Book" of Chronology, containing the leading principles, laws and facts of that science.

THE FIRST part treats of measuring time and adjusting its various divisions; the SECOND of fixing dates of historical events and arranging them in order; and the THIRD, of miscellaneous matters important to the chronologist.

UNDER THE FIRST DIVISION are discussed the day, the week, the month, the year and certain cycles used in computing the civil calendar and preparing the Almanac; the origin, history, nature, character, and various sub-divisions of each, especially among the ancients.

UNDER THE SECOND DIVISION the methods of ascertaining the dates or the time when they occurred; the actual dates of some important eras whose epochs are disputed; the most important epochs and eras which have been employed at different times and by different nations, including those which are still in use; and the actual dates of the most prominent events in classical chronology.

UNDER THE THIRD AND LAST DIVISION are considered the epochs and eras of less importance; a sketch of the chronology of India and o China; the principles of the art of mnemotechyny as applied to dates, and the different systems of that art which have been propounded.

The author believes that a work successfully executed upon this plan, though it may not contain very much that is new, cannot but be useful and profitable, not only to the reading public, but also to the youth of our country, in the acquisition of classical and historical learning: and HISTORY will be THE STUDY of this age; it must always be the study of thoughtful men in times of revolution and great political changes, such as our country is at present undergoing.

The contributions of North Carolina, and of the Southern States of the Union generally, to American literature, have heretofore been few, and, for the most part, worthless. A few works of fiction and some fugitive poems include our past efforts; and, with the excellent Latin Grammar, and the edition of Cæsar's Commentaries, prepared for the press by Col. Bingham—works the very best of their character which have ever fallen under our observation, and which, under more favorable circumstances, will yet win for iheir author that high reputation in his profession which he merits—OUR contributions to USEFUL LITERATURE are of the very humblest character. Under such circumstances this book is, with some confidence, presented for public patronage.

The author proposes to publish by subscription. The cost of publication will be fifteen hundred dollars, or more. The book contains about two hundred and fifty 12 mo. pages. It will be brought out in the best style of one of our best American publishers, as to type, paper and binding. The cost of single copies delivered will be $4.50.

Persons desiring to subscribe can communicate with the undersigned at Raleigh, but subscript on lists will be opened at various places of business in Raleigh and other towns in the State. Subscriptions will be required in cash as essential to the success of the enterprise. Editors who will give this Circular a few insertions and forward a copy of their papers containing it to the author, will be furnished with a copy of the book.

The volume will be placed in the hands of the publisher as soon as the author's success is at all assured, and will be issued to subscribers a few weeks thereafter.

AYER'S CATHARTIC PILLS,

Are the most perfect purgative which we are able to produce, or which we think has ever yet been made by any body. Their effects have abundantly shown to the community how much they excel the ordinary medicines in use. They are safe and pleasant to take, but powerful to cure. Their penetrating properties stimulate the vital activities of the body, remove the obstructions of its organs, purify the blood, and expel disease. They purge out the foul humors which breed and grow distemper, stimulate sluggish or disordered organs into their natural action, and impart a healthy tone with strength to the whole system. Not only do they cure the every-day complaints of every body, but also formidable and dangerous diseases. While they produce powerful effects, they are at the same time, in diminished doses, the safest and best physic that can be employed for children. Being sugar-coated, they are pleasant to take; and, being purely vegetable, are free from any risk of harm. Cures have been made which surpass belief, were they not substantiated by men of such exalted position and character, as to forbid the suspicion of untruth. Many eminent clergymen and physicians have lent their names to certify to the public the reliabilities of our remedies, while others have sent us the assurance of their conviction that our Preparations contribute immensely to the relief of our afflicted, suffering fellow men.

The Agent below named is pleased to furnish gratis our American Almanac, containing directions for the use, and certificates of their cures, of the following complaints:

Costiveness, Bilious Complaints, Rheumatism, Dropsy, Heartburn, Headache arising from foul stomach, Nausea, Indigestion, Morbid Action of the bowels and pain arising therefrom, Flatulency, Loss of Appetite, all Diseases which require an evacuant medicine. They also, by purifying the blood and stimulating the system, cure many complaints which it would not be supposed they could reach such as Deafness, Partial Blindness, Neuralgia and Nervous Irritability. Derangements of the Liver and Kidneys, Gout, and other kindred complaints arising from a low state of the body or obstruction of its functions.

Do not be put off by unprincipled dealers with other preparations which they make more profit on. Demand AYER'S and take no other. The sick want the best aid there is for them, and they should have it.

Prepared by Dr. J. C. AYER & Co., and sold by

BOOK AND JOB PRINTING.

THE UNDERSIGNED RESPECTFULLY announce to the public that they have formed a copartnership for the purpose of carrying on the BOOK AND JOB PRINTING BUSINESS in all its branches.

Each member of the firm is a practical printer, and, with an experience of twenty years each, they confidently appeal to the people of their native State for a liberal share of patronage.

They have one of the Largest Printing Establishments
in the State, and execute their own work, which, for neatness and cheapness, cannot be excelled in the South

The senior member of the firm has been for a number of years superintendent of the Printing Office of the North Caro ina Institution for the Deaf and Dumb and the B ind which has always sustained a high reputation for neat and tasty printing.

They are prepared to execute, at short notice,
